THRICE-A-WEEK EDITION.

The striking and important events of the last year have established the overwhelming value of THE THRICE-A-WEEK WORLD to every reader. For an almost nominal sum it has kept its subscribers informed of the progress of all our wars and, moreover, has reported them as promptly and fully as if it were adaily. With our interests still extending throughout the world, with our troops operating in the Philippines and the great Presidential campaign, too.at hand, its value is further increased.

The motto of THE THRICK A- WEEK America's best exponent of World is improvement. It strives each principal stations at the following hours: year to be better than it was the year before, and public confidence in it is shown by the fact that it now circulates more than twice as many papers every week as any other newspaper not a
